| What will Ford and your dealer do? | Ford Motor Company has authorized your dealer to inspect and perform the actions listed below, depending on the vehicle mileage and part availability, free of charge (parts and labor). <ul style="list-style-type: none">• If 5 miles or less are on the odometer, check and top off the rear axle lubricant.• If greater than 5 miles on the odometer and Ford parts are available, replace the rear axle wheel bearings and seals, and drain and refill the axle with new lubricant.• If greater than 5 miles on the odometer and Ford parts are not available, an interim service procedure will be performed.• A follow-up service appointment will be required when Ford parts become available. |
| How long will it take? | The time needed for this repair is less than one-half day. However, due to service scheduling requirements, your dealer may need your vehicle for a longer period of time. In addition, your vehicle may require an inspection to determine if parts need to be ordered. |
